

Terry Borst Professional Profile

Terry Borst was employed in corporate America during her professional career.

While her children were in school, she chaired many fund-raising events and was a volunteer working in the school office.

She was an administrative assistant for 6 years and then moved into a position as a customer service rep and training specialist.

Most of her career was spent working for Digital Equipment Corp, the 2nd largest computer equipment company in the country at that time. During her employment, she became a Senior Sales Rep, making her annual sales quota for 13 of 15 years. She was also in the top 10% of sales rep's meeting their annual sales quotas for 2 years.

She and her husband, Toby, currently enjoy membership at a private country club. With that experience, she has shared many innovative ideas for the benefit of our golf club.

Terry has proven leadership skills within CWGA and other personal endeavors.
