CWGA BOARD MEETING
CCC Activity Center, Lewis Room

Handicap - Diane Meyers

- The most improved player was calculated on October 1st. Forty-nine players improved their handicap this season with CWGA, but only thirty-nine players qualified. In order to qualify, a member must establish a handicap before April 1st. The formula that is used is done automatically by the USGA Handicap. Susan Heenk placed 1st, Carol Sullivan placed 2nd and Brenda Hankins placed 3rd.
- There was a discussion regarding the way we celebrate our three competitions. This year the celebration was at the Stagette, and it provided a huge audience to honor our champions. Some members missed the gathering at the end of the competition. The Pavilion has been secured next year to post scores for members who would like to stay for results. It was suggested that we do both a gathering after the competition and a celebration at the Stagette.

Day's Play/Scoring-- Patti Book

- Patti Book asked that Board Members reach out and say thank you to Day's Play Managers: Kathy Stout, Karen Miller, Brenda Hankins, Susan Weakley, Kathi Lewis, Rose Mills, Alice Galloway, Lynne McMaster, Carla Robertson, Jan Landis and Tricia Smith. We will recognize Day's Play Managers in a written communication to members. These volunteers serve our members at the very core of our mission.
- A request was made that next year Day's Play be on every General Meeting at the Scrambles to share a tidbit of information to members.
- Susan Weakley is going to assume the duties of Secretary on the 2027 Executive Committee, therefore, she will not be a Day's Play Manager next season. We will not be replacing Susan Weakley next year since the current Day's Play Managers wanted to take on more days.
- We currently have 61 members signed up for Winter Golf. Linda Peck, Lynne McMaster and Patti Book will manage the invitations and tee sheets. A flyer will be sent to the Communication Team for posting.
- October is Guest Month, with a variety of fun games.

Rules – Joann Linville

- It was suggested that Rules have time at the General Meetings to share information about the rules. Joanne Linville would like to share Pace of Play information perhaps through videos. The videos could be used for Winter Lunches and at the New Member Orientation.
- Jill Ebner will be taking the Rules Class and will need the latest edition of the Rules Book.
- The "Leaf Rule" is now in effect. If a ball is lost in the leaves, there is no penalty and a free drop with another ball.

OGA Director/Liaison – Sue Oberg

- Sue Oberg will be attending the Annual OGA Meeting on October 19th.

Publicity – Marikate Book

- Marikate Book announced that she has found members who have agreed to write the article for the Villager.
- An announcement regarding Winter Golf will be in The Villager.

Competition – Diane Meyers

- The Competitions went very well this year.
- There was a discussion regarding how members can check the amount of money they have won in the Portal. The money for the Partnership Tournament is not in the Portal because that had to be calculated by hand rather than on Golf Genius. We are working on fixing that issue.
- The celebration of competition winners and presentation of trophies to the winners at the Stagette was a success. Some members would like us also to post scores on the white board on the last day of each tournament for people who would like to stay. The Pavilion has been requested for each competition next year for this purpose.
